

Brackenhill Primary School

Governor / Volunteer Privacy Notice

Our School Vision

At Brackenhill, success is for everyone. Whether you are a mighty Oak or a tiny acorn, you can achieve and become anything you want to be. No matter what part of the journey you join us on, we will support you every step of the way and nurture your growth to help you reach your full potential. By providing you with opportunities that inspire and ignite your curiosity, we will water your thirst for knowledge to instil within you a love for learning so that you may flourish.

No matter what the weather, rest assured you will never be left alone and there will always be somebody to shelter you. Whether you are a creative rose, a curious daffodil, a content sunflower or a cheeky dandelion, at Brackenhill Primary, you will be able to blossom within our colourful and vibrant garden. You will grow with others around you on fertile ground to create a better world for everyone rooted in respect and kindness. No matter where you disperse, you will take your seeds of knowledge with you, offering them to gardens all around the world, knowing you will always have a place at Brackenhill.

You have a legal right to be informed about how our school uses any personal information that we hold about you. To comply with this, we provide a 'privacy notice' to you where we are processing your personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about you.

We, Brackenhill Primary School are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our named school contact Rajwinder Driver (School Business Manager).

Our data protection officer is Ben Cain (Impero DPO Service).

Independent Assurance is provided by Impero DPO Service

The Personal Data We Hold

We process data relating to those volunteering at Brackenhill Primary School. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details
- References
- Evidence of qualifications
- Employment details
- Information about business and pecuniary interests

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This may include information about (where applicable):

- Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions
- Disability and access requirements

Why We Use This Data

The purpose of processing this data is to support the Brackenhill Primary School to:

- Establish and maintain effective governance
- Meet statutory obligations for publishing and sharing governors' and trustees' details
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Undertake equalities monitoring
- Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers who require them

Our Lawful Basis For Using This Data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation
- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

We have legitimate interests in processing the data – for example, where:

- Clerking service providers require information to coordinate meetings and distribute information
- Currently, google and google drive are the centralised IT system used for the coordination of governance activities
- Training providers require information to coordinate training sessions and distribute information
- Relevant associations require information to be able to distribute relevant information
- Directly to trustees and governors (eg National Governance Association)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your data.

Collecting This Information

While the majority of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How We Store This Data

Personal data is stored in accordance with our Data Protection policy. We maintain a file to store personal information about all volunteers. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your work Brackenhill Primary School

When your relationship with the school has ended, we will retain and dispose of your personal information in accordance with our Data Protection Policy and can be found on our website at www.brackenhill.bradford.sch.uk

Data Sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

- Government departments or agencies – to meet our legal obligations to share information about governors/trustees
- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as details of governors
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as governor/trustee support
- Professional advisers and consultants
- Employment and recruitment agencies
- Police forces, courts

Transferring Data Internationally

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

Your Rights

How to access the personal information we hold about you.

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the Brackenhill Primary School holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have a right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request please contact our named school contact or data protection officer.

Other Rights

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe, including the right to:

- Object to the use of personal data if it would cause, is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent it being used to send direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact either our named school contact or data protection officer via office@brackenhillprimary.co.uk

Responsibilities of Governors, Trustees and Other Volunteers

We are provided with contact details by governors, trustees and other volunteers for the purposes of communication (email addresses, telephone numbers etc). Governors, trustees and other volunteers should inform us in writing of any changes to these details as soon as possible so that our records can be updated and to minimise the risk of the incorrect distribution of personal data.

Complaints

We take any complaints about how we collect and use your personal data very seriously, so please let us know if you think we've done something wrong.

You can make a complaint at any time by contacting our named school contact or data protection officer.

You can also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office in one of the following ways: Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Call 0303 123 1113

Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF
